Project Area: 0.3 Acres

Purpose: To eliminate eligible abandoned mine public health and safety hazards that are located within close proximity to places of intense visitation of humans.

Description: The Coal Run project eliminated 200 feet of a dangerous highwall by the construction of a multi-terraced retaining wall system. Prior to the construction of the retaining wall, the dangerous highwall promoted intense public visitation through hiking trails and rope swings that were integrated throughout rocky vertical ledges of the dangerous highwall. Eighty inhabitable structures that promote intense public visitation were located within 500 feet of the project site. Four structures were located only 20 feet from the dangerous highwall. This reclaimed dangerous abandoned mine feature is located within Problem Area 0488 (PA 0488), which is referenced within the Bridgeville 7.5 Minute USGS Quadrangle Map. This dangerous condition was a direct result of an abandoned deep mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Company that was inventoried prior 1936 by the WPA. The dangerous abandoned mine features met the Office of Surface Mining's (OSM's) Priority 2 safety criteria.
