

Monday, 10/5, 12:00–1:00 PM

Empowering the Future – It All Starts with the Grid

Join in and learn the foundational basics of Pennsylvania’s electrical grid as well as our role & partnership in the PJM (Pennsylvania, (New) Jersey, Maryland). The PJM is the Regional Transmission Organization (RTO) that manages the electric grid and wholesale electricity markets across 13 U.S. states and the District of Columbia.

Click to Sign-Up

Tuesday, 10/6, 12:00–1:00 PM

Energy Storage 101

Hear from subject matter experts as they highlight why energy storage is growing in importance and how to address challenges! Additionally, learn of the best practices and opportunities associated with the siting of large-scale energy storage.

Click to Sign-Up

Wednesday, 10/7, 12:00–1:00 PM

Support Infrastructure for EVs, Energy and Transportation

Tune in to learn more about investments in Pennsylvania to support electric vehicles! Topics will include the status of the National Electric Vehicle Infrastructure (NEVI) Program’s EV charging portfolio and information on the electric grid as more EVs are in use.

Click to Sign-Up

Thursday, 10/8, 12:00–1:00 PM

Energy Efficiency, Auditing and Act 129 Program Update

Join us as we highlight energy saving opportunities & incentives available through the PA Act 129 Program. Additionally, we’ll highlight the benefits of energy saving measures & equipment including energy audits & heat pumps.

Click to Sign-Up

Friday, 10/9, 12:00–1:00 PM

Business Highlight – Industrial Sector Sustainability

Join to learn how businesses are investing in clean energy and energy efficiency projects. Highlights will include details on RISE PA (Reducing Industrial Sector Emissions in Pennsylvania) program participants and their successes.

Click to Sign-Up

Continue the Conversation! – Sign-Up for the Sustainability Webinar Series 8 Below:

Sustainability

SERIES 8

Hosted by

Explore the future of PA's energy—from grid basics and EV networks to industrial clean energy and money-saving efficiency programs.

Friday, 10/16/2026, 12:00–1:00 PM

Sustainability Program Highlights - Philadelphia & Pittsburgh

Interested in sustainability actions within PA cities? Join us as we learn more about the sustainability efforts underway at the Philadelphia Energy Authority and the City of Pittsburgh!

Click to Sign-Up

Friday, 11/20/2026, 12:00–1:00 PM

Energy Affordability – Residential Sector

As energy demand continues to increase, many are experiencing financial difficulties. Join in to learn how organizations are working to relieve some of these challenges across Pennsylvania.

Click to Sign-Up

Friday, 1/15/2027, 12:00–1:00 PM

Supporting Small Farms – Roadmap for Regional Digesters

The Commonwealth wishes to preserve our heritage as a significant agriculture producer and energy production leader in the US. Utility-scale anaerobic digesters help to preserve small farms and mitigate climate risks. Hear from the Departments of Environmental Protection and Agriculture, and our selected roadmap contractor on project goals & timeline and how you can get involved!

Click to Sign-Up

Friday, 2/19/2027, 12:00–1:00 PM

Leading the Way – Emerging Innovations in Sustainable Design

The best way to address energy demands and pollution is to innovate production processes that reduce them from the outset. Learn about Pennsylvania's leadership in innovative materials and processes that bake sustainability into their very design, including a new type of glass and a new way of producing concrete.

Click to Sign-Up

Friday, 3/19/2027, 12:00–1:00 PM

Equitability in the Energy Transition – Women in Trades and Manual Workforce

The transition to a greener energy future holds great promise for economic development and workforce development. But the transition also presents a challenge of making sure those economic and job opportunities are equally available to all. Come hear from leaders building a more equitable energy transition in Pennsylvania.

Click to Sign-Up

Friday, 4/16/2027, 12:00–1:30 PM

Earth Week Sustainability Popcorn Session

It's Earth Week! Let's celebrate progress being made across the Commonwealth to build more resilient communities. Join us as we learn about exciting actions and efforts from multiple communities all working to make Pennsylvania more sustainable.

Click to Sign-Up