One farmer in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, has experienced the evolution firsthand, and can provided for complete buildings, buildings under construction, appurtenances to insured structures losses caused by movements of the earth's surface that results from the collapse of abandoned Starting July 1, 2021, Mine Subsidence Insurance (MSI) premiums will be reduced by half and Efforts like this on local farms help Pennsylvania reduce nutrient pollution in local waterways and streams healthy by participating in a DEP pilot program involving timber mats and farming livestock.
DEP's Bureau of Abandoned Mine Reclamation. "Funding to continue AML reclamation and abate "Clearly, our work to address these legacy problems is not done," said Brian Bradley, Director of toured abandoned mine lands in Northumberland and Schuylkill counties to highlight successful the Interior Secretary Deb Haaland, National Climate Advisor Gina McCarthy, and officials from the Illegal dumping creates ideal breeding grounds for mosquitoes. Once they inhabit these dumping Illegal Dumping Carries More Than a Price Tag
"As Pennsylvania focuses on economic recovery and growth, the clean energy sector will Industry Workforce Development Needs Assessment and Gap Analysis Report identifies how to prior, and the COVID-19 pandemic has created a backlog of clean energy projects, resulting in a
"These grants help cities, counties, school districts, colleges, as well as delivery, trash hauling, and DEP recently awarded more than $3.4 million in 2020 Alternative Fuel Incentive Grants (AFIGs) to Emissions
chances of being bitten by ticks:
The Wolf Administration reminds Pennsylvania residents and visitors of simple ways to reduce their DEP collected two times more Blacklegged tick nymphs compared to last year. This is especially reporting that they are seeing more cases of other tick-borne diseases, such as anaplasmosis. As bites and cases of tick-borne diseases this time of year," Dr. Johnson said. "This year in particular, Rising average temperature and increased occurrences of heatwaves and heavy rainfall events are increasing rainfall and project how it will show the trend of rising temperatures and climate change.
 quality, increased damage from flooding, communities across the state, including in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Allentown, Braddock, shop to talk with Neighbors & Smith property manager David Hutton and shop owner Michele Koch at Neighbors & Smith retail center in Camp Hill, Cumberland County, which installed four chargers program. McDonnell celebrated the milestone Pennsylvania to improve our waters is working!
known as gnats. These little pests thankfully aren't disease vectors, but they can be extremely That is actually DEP's Black Fly program at work, controlling the populations of black flies – also helicopters over nearby streams and rivers, pouring out what looks like it might be chocolate milk. eyesore; it can thousands of mosquito eggs. Which is why littering and illegal dumping can be more than just an how to get rid of mosquito breeding grounds around your home.
Vector Management program has been surveying mosquitoes all summer. DEP's

Roger Rohrer stands in a 20-year-old forest buffer planted on his family's farm in Strasburg, Learn more about Pennsylvania Climate Impacts Assessment 2021 in this press conference

Patrick McDonnell
Pennsylvania to improve our waters is working!

DEP Secretary Patrick McDonnell