

Nancy D. Perkins

Nancy D. Perkins

Associate Dean and Professor

Duquesne University School of Law

Allegheny County

E-mail: perkins@duq.edu

Appointed: July 2011

Expires: January 2014

Appointing Authority: President Pro Tempore of the Senate

Education:

- B.A. from Mount Holyoke College
- J.D. from Nova Southeastern University's Shepard Broad Law Center

In Nancy's current role as Associate Dean and Professor of Law, she teaches courses in: Environmental Justice, Property, Environmental Law, Pennsylvania Environmental Law and Administrative Practice. She serves as Advisor for Duquesne Law School Environmental Law Society and is a past advisor for the Duquesne Law Review.

Nancy wrote the chapter Sustainability's Lessons for Environmental Justice in "Environmental Engineering & Economics," pages 233-50. She has had many other published works, including contributing to Brownfield Redevelopment and Sustainability in "The State of The Commonwealth: Is Pennsylvania Moving Towards A Sustainable Future?" This report was submitted to the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection by the Sustainable Pennsylvania Program of the Pennsylvania Consortium for Interdisciplinary Environmental Policy.