

EJ UPDATE

Your Environment, Your Voice

TOM WOLF, GOVERNOR • PATRICK MCDONNELL, DEP SECRETARY

Greetings, Environmental Justice partners!

We hope you are staying safe and well. The Office of Environmental Justice (OEJ) team is writing to send you important updates and resources from the Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (DEP).

Governor's Office Update

Governor Wolf, Lawmakers Announce Actions to Prioritize Environmental Justice!

Governor Wolf joined members of the PA Legislative Black Caucus and environmental advocates on Thursday, October 28 to announce efforts to address environmental justice. Governor Wolf issued an Executive Order strengthening the Wolf Administration's efforts to address environmental justice and support low-income communities and communities of color that are adversely impacted by environmental issues and adverse health impacts. The executive order permanently establishes the DEP's Office of Environmental Justice, Environmental Justice Advisory Board (EJAB), and an Environmental Justice Interagency Council. "Many Pennsylvania communities have been disproportionately harmed by pollution, and today's executive order by Governor Wolf is a first step in making sure that we have some of the tools to mitigate and prevent it from happening in the future," said DEP Secretary Patrick McDonnell.

State Representatives Donna Bullock, Malcolm Kenyatta and Chris Rabb and state Senator Vincent Hughes have proposed bills to support the governor's executive actions. Their bills would require a more transparent and open process before certain facilities are built or expanded within areas defined as "burdened communities," codify the Office of Environmental Justice within DEP, and codify the Environmental Justice Interagency Council. These legislative actions would protect these executive actions from being unilaterally disbanded.

DEP Grants 101 Webinar

As part of our efforts to broaden the diversity of first-time applicants for grant funding, we're offering a live webinar, "DEP Grants 101," on Thursday, December 2 at 11:00 am. Drawing on the feedback many of you provided in our grants outreach survey, "DEP Grants 101" will cover topics helpful to those who've never applied for a DEP grant and may not know that DEP offers funding to help them improve the environment in their community or at their school or place of business. The webinar may also be useful for organizations that have applied for grants but would like a refresher on the basics of grants at DEP.

We hope to reach a diverse range of community groups, businesses, municipal offices, farmers, and other organizations, particularly those in Environmental Justice Areas. Can you please help us spread the word by sharing this information widely via your networks? If you have any questions about the webinar, please contact Michele at (717) 705-3568 or mdevaney@pa.gov.
